Holy Communion	Children who have been Baptised but not confirmed may be admitted to Holy Communion if the following steps are taken. The PCC should discuss this matter and agree to proceed. An application should be made in writing (application form available from Geoffrey Harbord - geoffrey@bishopofsheffield.org.uk) and a register kept of all children who are then admitted to Holy Communion. The parish must make adequate provision for preparation and continuing nurture of the children, and the parents must be supportive of the decision. Parishes should have a strategy for working with families who do not wish for their children to be admitted to HC and with children who come to church without their parents. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Methodist paper: www.methodist.org.uk/downloads/cgmc-children-and-holy-communion-1113.pdf • Ready to Share One Bread by Nick Harding and Sandra Millar is a useful reference book for a parish wishing to consider the issues before reaching a decision. • Welcome to the Lord's Table by Margaret Withers • Welcome to the Lord's Table Activity Book (for children) by Margaret Withers • My Communion Book: A Child's Guide to Holy Communion by Kathleen Crawford • Creative Communion by Margaret Withers and Tim Sledge (a sample chapter can be found here: www.barnabasinchurches.org.uk/pdfs/9781841015330.pdf) • Come and Join the Celebration: A Resource Book to Help Adults and Children Experience Holy Communion Together by John Muir • Liturgy boxes www.spiritualchild.co.uk/liturgyboxes.html
