Clip 3

How do you think both characters feel when they have forgiven one another?

Listen to one another, say sorry,
forgive and move forward

Dear God,

Thank you for films, and how they entertain and teach us lessons.

Thank you that we can learn from our mistakes and arguments.

Thank you for the times when we've said sorry and we've been forgiven.

When we fall out with others, please help us to forgive, move forward and build stronger friendships.

Amen
