

Session 2: The Good News

(Luke 2:8-15)

Welcome

Share the story of a time when you were given some surprising good news. How long were you waiting for it?

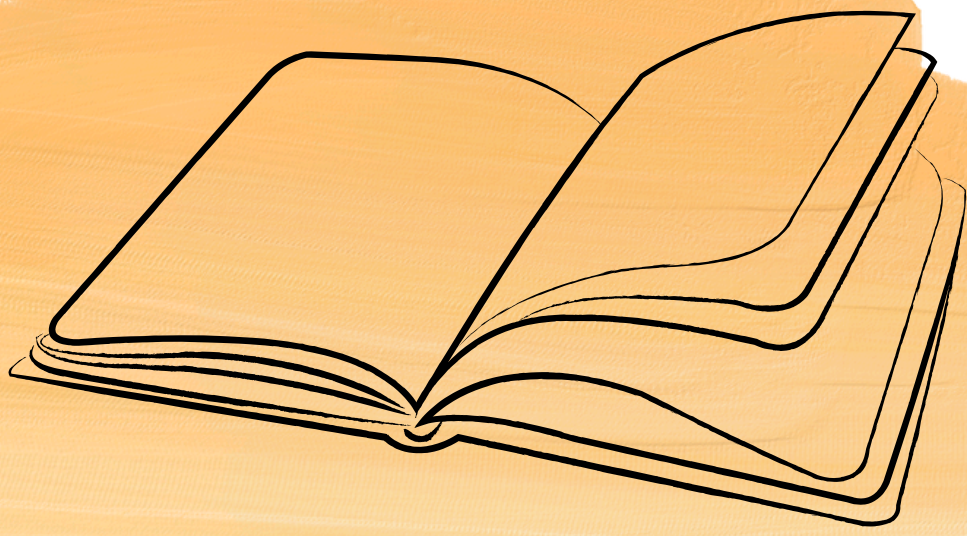

Read Isaiah 52:7 together. Think about what it means for you to be a person who brings good news and proclaims peace.

Worship

How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news, who proclaim peace, who bring good tidings, who proclaim salvation, who say to Zion, "Your God reigns!" - Isaiah 52:7

Word

- Q1. What does this passage tell us about God?
- Q2. What does this passage tell us about humanity?
- Q3. How will this passage change how we live?

The Hebrew word which is translated 'Messiah' means 'anointed one' - the hoped-for King who will save the people of Israel. The Greek word for 'anointed one' is 'christos' - this is the root of the words 'Christ' and 'Christian'. Jesus Christ (Messiah) came to save the world.

Reflecting on Luke 2:8-15, discuss the people you meet in your everyday life, and ask God to help you bring good news and peace to them. Finish by praying for one another
